

Reading Together

Choose a favourite time to read together as a family and enjoy it.

This might be everyone reading the same books together, Reading different things at the same time or getting your children to read to each other. This time spent reading together can be relaxing for all.

FREE WORKSHOP CHILDREN & ADULTS

Why Read?

Reading helps your child's well-being. Develop imagination and has educational benefits too. Just a few minutes a day can have a big impact on children of all ages.

Create a wooden spoon prop

Learn how to develop your child's language and communication skills

Have fun creating a spoon to use as a prop whilst telling a story or singing a song

Reading Choice

Give children lots of opportunities to read different things in their own time - it doesn't have to be books. There's fiction, non-fiction, poetry, comics, magazines, recipes and much more. Try leaving reading material in different places around the home and see who picks it up.
